

Verses

Bipul Bikash Banerjee

Cracks have opened in
Battered souls

The widowed canvas appears
White and shrivelled

Bestow the moisture of
Your revered words

I absorb your verses
As the thirsty canvas
Absorbs fresh paints

Coat me with layer after layer
Of compassion, as
Most of them shall be soaked

To quench the antiquated thirst.

Poetry and Prose arise out of Agitated sentiments, I know
Some sharply pointing
Some bluntly destructive

For me every vocable of yours
Is a panacea that
Checks and heals all that
I suffer within
