

Poems by Gary Beck

Discharged

Combat veterans
return home
where little has changed
while they served
in a hostile land
of roadside bombs,
ambushes, sniping,
stubborn determination
to drive out occupiers
with implacable jihad,
but the tour survived,
welcomed by loved ones
who don't understand why they miss their rifles.

Protest II

Radical groups
easily infiltrate
righteous protests
of social injustice,
using their agenda
of mindless violence
to kidnap the headlines
from sincere efforts to make changes
in an unfair system,
implicating everyone
in hostile confrontations
with law enforcement, eliminating the chance
of improving conditions for those in need.

Plague

Persistent inclinations to oppressively bully
the weaker, vulnerable, are symptoms of disease
in a corrupted body,
a carrier, polluted host,
untreated infecting others with debilitation, illness halting healthy development, depleting potential
due to negligent parents, dysfunctional system.
