Karuna Kumari Gumparti

The Roaring Lioness

Gazing at high stars, 'she' knows quite well
That, for all care, can go to hell!
On earth, indifference is the lent
She has to deal with men of advent.

Should we like stars to burn?
With a passion not to return!
Equal choices can be given
To showcase the forbidden.

The 'stars' admired are not caged
Let them shine as raged!
I see them, say
I missed 'one' terribly all days.

Were all 'stars' to disappear and die?

Learn to look sublime!

Make the world untie

The miseries of earthen 'Safire'.
