

Raj Yura

Music Set to the Beaches

The beaches non-coherently are all sand sans smoke of the dead

And the dead don't lie under the sun warming their bodies, getting tans instead they lie under the earth or under the boughs of the wind in cemeteries

She was pricked by the very sentiment of love to pick the candle and then forget it might rain on stormy night without any prejudice

And if the God himself has prejudice against the ignorants the whole world would be blind.
